

LOCAL

PHOTO SPECIAL TO THE SUN

Greenville pediatrician Dr. Tim Fuller, far left, participated in the United Way Color Run with his sons Gabe, center, and Josh Fuller. The event was not timed, but the Fuller brothers were the top finishers in the run.

PHOTO SPECIAL TO SUN

Participants are shown lined up and ready to go in the United Way Color Run held Aug. 6.

'Run And Let DYE' Benefits United Way

The United Way of Greene County raised $1,995 at its third annual United Way 5K Run and Let DYE on Saturday, Aug. 6.

The event was held on the Cross Country Course at Holston United Methodist Home for Children.

There were 90 participants in the event, including more than 30 from Holston Home, organizers said.

Volunteers from Holston Home and Tusculum College helped throw color on the participants and lunch was provided by John Price, the Hot Dog Man.

The event was not a timed run, but the first two finishers were Gabriel Fuller and his brother, Joshua Fuller, followed by Isiquiel Salinas in third place.

Sponsors of the event included ABC Family Dentistry, Wal-Mart, and WGRV/WIKQ/WSMG Radio Greenville.