

Christian Comedian Shares Stories

SUN PHOTO BY BRIAN CLIPSHALL

Standup comedian Torry Martin reflects upon his childhood, attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder, life in Alaska and relationship with God in a Thursday performance at the Capitol Theatre. The show was hosted by Holston United Methodist Home for Children and the Capitol. Spinning humorous and often heartfelt stories, Martin mused on mistakes in his life: "God loves us when we're stupid — especially when we're stupid."